Annie Rogers.

REPORTED ON BY COMMITTEE.

22 Dec 1916

5th March, /7.

re Claim No. 3802.

Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter of the 2nd instant I beg to state that as already intimated this claim was carefully investigated and the Committee regret that they are unable to revise their award.

As regards the further claim put forward I am to state that as the Committee are winding up their work they are unable now to entertain any fresh claim.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Sir,

In reference to my claim 3802. 30th inst. about which I heard from you. 13th Feb. saying the amt. awarded me £5. 10 was the full value of my goods lost in the rebellion, at the time of their loss. I beg to say I have been in communication with Messrs Hopkins & Hopkins on the matter. & they advise me write you again & that you will take the matter up.

I do not at all wish to be causing trouble but in the first instance as a loyal subject I placed the lowest possible value on the goods. money will not repay me in a sense for them as they were all cherished possessions. Gold is now of more value than ever before & yet for a gold bangle with valuable trinkets attached. a gold brooch. a valuable cruet & 56. real amethysts (silver gilt mountings) I receive £5. 10. I claimed £30. at least I might have been given £20 as current

I know cases where quite the opposite has occured & cannot understand it.

At the time of the rebellion there was also in Messrs Hopkins & Hopkins a brown suede bag belonging to me. I find now that also was destroyed. until now I was not aware of that and wish to put forward a claim for £2 for bag. which was a good one.

Hoping that you will see some way have the matter settled in a more satisfactory manner & that I'll receive something at least fairly compensating. Apologizing for so often troubling you -

I am, Sir.

Most faithfully

(Mrs.) Annie Rogers.

re Claim No. 3802.

Dear Madam,

In reply to your letter of the 9th instant I beg to state that the £5. 10. 0 awarded in this case is in respect of all the articles enumerated in the claim, and represents in the opinion of the Committee, arrived at after careful investigation, the value of the articles at the time of their loss.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Sir.

With reference to my claim for goods destroyed at Messrs Hopkins & Hopkins during rebellion. (No 3802. 30th List). I have received an order from Dublin Castle for £5. 10. My claim was for £30. for the following.

Gold bangle with trinkets attached. £ 0 D.
16 . 0 0

Gold Brooch. 5 . 0 . 0.

Silver mounted cut glass cruet ~~bots~~ of which destroys a set. £5 . 0 . 0.

Ameythst beads. consisting of 56. real stones with silver gilt mounting £10 - 0 . 0.

On communicating with the Under Sec. on the matter. I am directed by the Lord Lieutenant to again approach for in the matter as there must be some mistake. The sum awarded probably being for one item.

Several people I know have been more than generously compensated. For instance a small silver watch has been valued at £2.0.0 so that I must conclude there is no error in my case.
A reply will much oblige.
Yours faithfully
(Mrs) [illegible] Rogers.

Reply that the £5. 10. 0 awarded in this case is in respect of all the articles enumerated in the Cl., & represents in the opinion of the Commissioner, arrived at after careful investigation, the value of the articles at the time of their loss.

Sir.

In August last I forwarded to you a claim for compensation for goods of mine that at the time of the rebellion were in the establishment of Messrs Hopkins & Hopkins Jewellers O'connell St Dublin and totally destroyed. On 8th August '16. I received an acknowledgment of claim from you saying it would receive attention; since then I've heard nothing further. Messrs Hopkins & Hopkins refer me to you, telling me that a great many of their customers have received compensation for destroyed goods. I shall be most grateful for information as to when my claim will be dealt with.

Yours faithfully.
