Sir

As requested by you I wrote to my brother, to try and get the Touchers, for the clothes that was ruined on my being shot, at Easter, and for which I sent in a claim for compensation.

You will see by the enclosed letter that he has joined the army

Since

received and were done away with immediately, my wife says she burned some and put some in the dust-bin.

I am now entirely in your hands, and I am quite sure, and will be perfectly satisfied with any assessment you may make

yours very respty

H Madigan

A Lyon Esq
Altona Howth Rd.

receiving this letter, I have written to him, but received no reply.

I dont know what I can do now, of course I could go to Manchester myself and get these receipts as I know the street very well, (but not the firms name) but it would be very inconvenient to go at present

As regards the tabs mentioned by my sister in her letter, that is usually attached to clothing, I my say that my clothes were

Completely

Newcastle on Tyne

Dear Henry

your letter was forwarded on to me here you will be surprised to hear that Willie has joined up. & of course had to give up housekeeping. he is at present in Chatham but expects to be going to France shortly he joined the 'R. E's' I dont know what to do about the receipts for your clothes, you ought to see the tab on the inside of the overcoat, & get the name of the firm & then write yourself. I have no doubt they will remember you buying them. of course if of course if it is a question of you either getting these Vouchers, or loosing your Compensation I will go to Manchester & do my best if you send me on the name of the Tailors. I need not say how delighted I am to hear you are getting well again, How is Bessie does she make any progress at all. The Rebellion must have been a source of great trouble to you all I shall be anxious to hear from you & write again very soon. as expect to be leaving here shortly

Yours Affty
Maggie
