Dear Sir.,

A few days ago I received a cheque for £14 from the Chief Secretarys Office, and I enclosed you a copy of a letter of protest that I sent, and in reply the Chief Secretary suggests that I should communicate with you.

I may add further to mine of 6th inst that my claim is based on cost prices only and not on present prices.,

Yours truly.,

January 6th 1917.,

The Chief Secretary's Office.,

Dublin Castle.,

Dear Sir.,

I have received a payment of 14£ against my claim for loss caused by the burning of the Imperial Hotel Dublin in Easter Week 1916, and must protest against this paltry attempt at settlement, I therefore wish to place the circumstances before you again and hope that you will see your way to reconsider my claim and advise a more equitable settlement. I was in Dublin on the invitation of the Royal Society in connection with the show at Balls Bridge, and as I had not been well for some time, it was my intention having a months holiday in Ireland and consequently had more clothes with me than would have had in the ordinary way, had it not been for my appointment at the show I would not have been in Dublin at all, and do not think it is fair that I should have to stand the loss.,

I might mention that when I came to repurchase I had to pay more money for worse articles.

Hoping to have a favourable reply from you in the course of a few days.,

Yours truly.,

Daniel Cronin

Mr. J. J. Healy,

DUBLIN.

Dear Sir,

On the 5th July last I lodged a claim with you for loss sustained during the Dublin trouble earlier in the year which you duly acknowledged. Since then I have heard nothing whatever about the matter. Will you please let me know when a settlement is likely to take place.

Yours truly;
