Enclosure

No. 1284. Miss M. F. Baker.

Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 22nd inst..
On the 12th May last I wrote to the Under-Secretary for Ireland, as follows:-

"I am acting for Miss M.F.Baker, of 33 Lr.Ormond Quay,
"and enclose a claim on her behalf for articles taken from
"her business premises at 33 Lr.Ormond Quay by the Military
"on the 29th ulto., during Miss Baker's absence owing to the "Sinn Fein rising.

"An old woman living in the house, together with my
"Client's message boy, was present at the time the soldiers
"came in. They broke the lock of the door leading into my
"Client's business premises, and took what they required,
"stating that they needed the articles, and that their
"officer had told them to take them.

"My Client is informed that the men belonged to the
"Leinster Regiment, but I am not sure as to this".

Subsequently, on receipt of a letter from the Major-General in charge of Administration, Irish Command, I furnished him with a copy of the claim in question. I now enclose a copy of same, amount £ 1. 5. 0..

I may add that my Client believes that further articles were taken from her business premises, but those on the enclosed list are the only ones she can identify beyond doubt.

Yours truly

H. Robinson.

Sir,

I am acting for Miss M. F. Baker of 33 Lr.Ormond Quay, Dublin, and enclose a claim on her behalf for articles taken from her business premises at 33 Lr.Ormond Quay, Dublin, by the Military, on the 29th ulto., during Miss Baker's absence owing to the rising.

An old woman who lives in the house, together with my Client's message boy, were present at the time the soldiers came in. The old woman referred to opened the front door for them, and they then broke the lock of the door leading into my Client's business premises, and took what they required, stating that they needed the articles and that their officer had told them to take them. My Client is informed that the men belonged to the Leinster Regiment, but cannot be sure that this is so.

I furnished the claim to the Under Secretary, and he has referred me to you in the matter.
