Insurance Policy ele returne d 50/9/16

18th Septr.

Claim No. 145.

Gentlemen,

In reply to your letter of the 15th instant, I beg to say that the claim was gone into carefully by the Committee, and they cannot now re-open the matter.

I am to add that the damage to glass roof at back of premises, should be made good by the landlords.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

Messrs Cunningham & Kirkpatrick, 29 Eden Quay, Dublin.

The Secretary,

Property Losses Committee,

51 Stephen's Green, avoil cl. Dear Sirs,

Confirming interview we had with you yesterday. The total amount of our claim is £36. 1. 2. and the paying order, received in full discharge of our claim is for £27. 19. 2. only.

Now, we would respectfully point out that every item claimed for was put down at exact cost. Estimates, Receipts and Price Lists were shown to the Assessor, and so far as we know he has been quite satisfied, but if there is anything on which he is not, we shall only be too pleased to go further into the matter.

The unfortunate part of the whole thing is, we have not been able to replace the goods looted except at a much advanced price, and in the case of Messrs. Heggie & Lockhart's estimate, we had not got it when the claim was filled in, but as the Assessor required this, we got it, and we would point out that the amount of * A for damage to Show-cases, Desks, Drawers, Presses, Safe and

We now find

filing Cabinet is much under the actual damage done, and these articles could not be repaired for double the amount claimed.

We may further mention that there was a large quantity of samples taken, and although they were worth money to us, we made no claim for them whatsoever, as we had not paid anything for them.

We trust you will re-consider our claim on the merits set forth above, and that you will send us a supplementary paying order for the £8. 2. 0. balance.

Yours truly,

CUNNINGHAM & KIRKPATRICK

There are two ilims in this claim which I reject: (1) Glass Roof at back. apparently the Landlords the Trick Transport + Interests in the buildings Workers Union are liable under their Lease (copy herewith enclosed) This leave was drawn in the name of the late Lundlords and was taken from 1 th Murch 1914 for 15 years. (2) Jamage to cerling. This was caused owing to the N.E. pipe becoming chaped & the water overflowing I fail to see how this can be attributed to the military occupation of The house as alleged. In any case the clamage is very slight in fact hardly naticiable.

The other items are fair or reasonable.
