Dear Sir Allow me to bring to your notice that on Thursday evening 9th April 1916,

16916

Yours troops T. Nett's & Co. req. commandeered my materials and furniture also sand & cement to barricade the roads. I and I personally went under great risk to get them bags for sand in factory. I ordered sleepers in some street and done everything possible to help and make them comfortable that is in making tea and giving them any assistance possible. I believe having control when

It was put out on Friday and they remained until Monday.

1st May. On which date I was let back to above address.

To discover the only money I left behind £43 was gone.

Dear Sir it is too enough for my horse and material to be taken without. I have to start again practically penniless and through no fault of mine So perhaps you will be good enough to have my case looked into. I have already sent Grave
