I enclose you proof from the Commanding Officer of the

Furthermore if you ^{look} at my claim

I find this a most trying year & cannot afford to be

Dear Sir
I have been away otherwise would have written you as regards the jewellery taken by the 5th Lancers that you have not allowed me for Major Terry told me that you were the people to pay for the jewellery taken by the men and what I desire most is if you will kindly bring under the notice of the Committee the fact that I now enclose proof that the 5th Lancers were in occupation here for Assessor Mr Fugoley called here he seemed sceptical about any Military being in my house and his manner seemed to me as if he thought I was stating a falsehood

Dear Madam,

I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of 28th ultimo, and in reply to say that the sum awarded did not include any allowance in respect of the garden wall. Messrs Keatinge's estimate is returned as requested, and also the enclosure sent with letter under reply.

Yours faithfully,

Miss M. Hanrahan,

I expect Captain Fielding to pay for their loss. He is already aware and knew before he left Dublin last May that the trunks & savings were missing when their men left.

I have had dealings with the Military Authorities whose premises adjoin mine here and have always found them very decent in making good any damage done by the men as indeed will show. I must say that I never met a more unpleasant individual than your Assessor Mr Ingoleby. Gordon may refering to it but his remark was so objectional and suspicious when I thought over his remarks on leaving I felt highly indignant One would almost imagine the whole thing was a concoction and he was good enough to tell me on the steps of 51 Stephen Green "It was well I got anything" Such impertinences I never met with. I don't want

Secretary.

Miss M. Hanrahan,

If I you in justice am I not entitled to be recompensed for £18. 8. 0 worth of jewellery alone

What have you allowed me for the mattress I had to send away in its horrible condition after their indolence in the large bedroom despite the house being in a most sanitary condition I learn since Mr.

Sugolsby was here I will have to pay £2. 10 for a new one In fact they ruined a lot of house linen and I did not make any charge for it. Hence you will see I have been scrupulously desirous to undervalue my losses

If it was only a question of loyalty such my position would afford to make a sacrifice in such a year of disasters but unfortunately needs must my position will not permit it and therefore I must ask you a kindly go into the matters and send draft

On the 2nd inst I received a draft from you for £5. 8. 6 which I only retain on account until you kindly look into my Compensation Claim during the occupancy of the 5 Leicester in my house during the rebellion unfortunately I was out when they arrived from England and they lived on the premises and would not give me possession until the 4th inst when Mr. Sugolsby called he did not seem to realize these facts but he asked me for the correct purchase price of the jewellery which I could not give him then without making enquiries and I find undervalued them as the debtors list £4. 10. the cheaper ring only 18^{shillings} & the diamond ring cost £6/- therefore I put

CHIEF SECRETARY'S

OFFICE

Dear Sir
During the recent rebellion Captain Fielding and men of the 5th Lancers were in occupation of my house until about ten minutes past one o'clock on the 4th May.

Captain Fielding was acquainted with these facts and herewith I enclose copy of my letter to him regarding the damage done.
I shall feel much

I have made enquiries about the ladder and I learn that Military were seen taking a long ladder from my fire stairs to the corner of Lansdowne Road

I observed in my interview at the show grounds that the officer standing by seemed to know more about what happened in my house during the occupation of your men, more than Sergeant Statham, perhaps he could give me some information as to its whereabouts

It is most delectful to me to have to draw attention to the wantonness of putting 8 or 10 bayonet cuts through the meat safe

As all the facts are fresh in our memory I thought it better to send you the estimate that the firm sent me to make Yours very sincerely yours

Captain Fielding
Dear Sir,

I have given a thorough search for the brooch & rings and regret to say they are missing from the premises

I don't like bothering you about these matters but is it not possible to check the rings which I left in a trunk-box in the front bedroom

As gifts from dear ones gone to Heaven they were valued beyond their trifling money worth £4.

One is a heavy keeper and the other a small diamond ring with an inscription inside (Mother & Mary)

The brooch contains a lock of hair mounted in tiny pearls

Your Matroness I have to get removed and had I observed it at the time I would show you the horrid state of things in the large front bedroom. The house is in an up to date sanitary condition and you will pardon my saying it, they might have the decency to go to the lavatory

When leaving the house I turned off the water & I drew Sergeant Statham's attention to the worst condition of the pipes on his leaving. The wall at the side of the garden is knocked down. To be just to both sides would it not be best send particulars for cost of repairs where I get estimate cost of repairing

To whom shall I send these particulars. I leave you are leaving today and I shall feel obliged by your giving the address to be sent where I am to forward the bill
Very Sincerely yours
