Imperial Tobacco Co's Claim No 1391A.

Dear Sir,

We are in receipt of your letter of yesterday's date and note what you say. We have been in communication with our clients relative to their claim against their Under-writers, and we understand from them that the claim which they made on them has been admitted to a certain extent, but the matter is not yet completed. Pending our hearing that the Under-writers have admitted full liability, you will of course not take us as agreeing with your statement that your Committee cannot deal with the claim.

Truly yours,

J. J. Healy, Esq.,

Property Losses Committee,

Stephens Green.

Compensation Claim No 2, Imperial Tobacco Co.

Dear Sirs,

Referring to your telephonic communication the other evening, we communicated with our clients' Head Office and have heard this morning that the Under-writers are still looking into the claim which has been lodged with them. They required some further information which was furnished to them a few days ago, and we are informed that the decision of the Underwriters as to whether they will admit or decline the Claim is expected within the next few days. We shall let you know when we hear further.

Truly yours,

Dear Sirs,

As the bringing to a close of the Committee's work is being held up pending the receipt of your reports in the above mentioned cases, I am directed by the Committee to ask that you will be so good as to furnish them with the desired reports before the close of this week.

Where in your opinion the Insurance Company is liable under the Policy in force to make good the loss sustained you might report accordingly.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.
