Sir

With reference to my application no 1417 for compensation for property of mine destroyed at my residence 62 Middle Abbey St during the recent outbreak I shall be obliged if you will kindly inform me when I may expect to receive a cheque in settlement as for some time past and still, I have been in rather straitened circumstances.

At present I have no home, and am in very indifferent health as a result of the terrible ordeal I went through, and the worry as to when my claim will be finally disposed of.

Yours faithfully,
William Kavanaugh.
