Interests in the buildings

Claimant was in the habit of leaving a hand bag of tools in Messrs. Mooney's Establishment when working in City so as to save trouble in carrying backwards and forwards. The handbag was deposited there on Saturday, 22nd April, and was burned with the premises on 28th idem. I saw Mr. Watson, Secretary of Messrs. Mooney's, and subsequently Mr. Cregan, the second in command of Mooney's, Lower Abbey Street premises at time of the Rebellion, but subsequently Manager of Mooney's, 74, Parnell Street, and from information gleaned there and other sources I believe £1. would fairly compensate.
