Sir,

I beg to bring under your notice the following facts :--

On the evening of Monday 24th April the Military at North Wall Station took possession of my premises. A large quantity of stores was put into two of the rooms, a dining room and a bedroom was used by six officers, and generally speaking the whole building was occupied by the military. They used all the coal that was on the premises, also beds, kitchen utensils, knives, forks, delph &c. My business as a hotel and restaurant and also a tobacco shop was of course stopped, and remained so until Wednesday 10th May.

You personally will be aware that every facility was afforded to the military.

I am in consequence at a considerable financial loss. About a dozen and a half knives and forks which were taken around the Station premises as well as several cups and saucers are missing. Three chairs and a baluster are lux broken, and there has been considerable wear and tear.

My estimated loss is set out in the enclosed account, and I beg to apply for compensation accordingly. I understand that the military that were accommodated at the Railway Company's hotel at North Wall had to pay for their accommodation, and I consider that I should be put in the same position.

I need not say that I have no complaint to make as to the conduct of the military who were most considerate.

As you are personally aware of the circumstances I am addressing my claim to you, and hope to hear from you at your convenience as the loss to me is very serious.

Yours obediently

Signed

Under Secretary,
Dublin Castle.

Head Quarters,

Irish Command.

I am sending herewith a letter dated 17th inst., which I have received from Miss O'Reilly, making a claim for £43:17:0, for the occupation of the Hotel and Restaurant, 46 North Wall, during the occupation by the troops during the late rebellion.

The house in question is a very small one, and "Inn" would be a more correct designation than "Hotel".

It was used for the storage of rations for the use of the troops at North Wall, April 24th - May 5th., and in addition, 3 or 4 officers and about 15 men slept in the house, and used it for meals etc., during the period.

The Inn could not have resumed business until May 5th., as the Docks were closed until that date.

I have placed opposite the figures given by the proprietress, what I consider to be legitimate charges.
