carefully investigated before a recommendation was made to the Comm. for more than for see this was to re-open the matter.*

Dear Sir/

9th 5/17
re Claim No. 20. - Amedeo Bardini, 75 B Parnell St.

I lately received from the Chief Secretaries Office on behalf of the above named Claimant a Draft for £21. 5. 0. My Client's Claim was for upwards of £90 and the amount now proposed to be paid to him is quite inadequate. Can the matter be gone into again with a view to making him a further payment. My Client tells me that at the present moment he is being pressed by the different Mineral Water Manufacturers with whom he dealt for something like £9. for bottles which are missing, in addition to this all the mirrors in his shop were smashed and he lost the entire of his Stock in Trade.

I should be obliged if it could be further investigated and shall be pleased to give any further information documentary or otherwise which may be required.

Yours faithfully,

H. D. Vaughan
