Interests in the buildings

The damage claimed for in this case has been repaired. I interviewed Captain Aherne, who seemed anxious to supply the fullest details. It is impossible, however, to check the stock of chocolates and cigarettes, so that, no doubt, he has erred on his own side when putting down his figures for these items.

The damage to glass has been repaired, and the "Union" Policy attached to the papers has no condition which would free them from liability in connection with the breakage. Therefore I leave it for the consideration of the Committee as to whether this item is to be ruled out.
