

NATIONAL ARCHIVES OF IRELAND

NAI/PLIC/1

Archives are subject to copyright and should not be copied or reproduced without the written permission of the Director of the National Archives

1497

Mary Reynolds

Not proceeded with (list 9A)

4
1497

Claim of Mary Reynolds. 115 Foley Street. Widow.

---

Mrs Reynolds resided for four years, two top rooms No.79 Lr.Gardiner Street with her daughter.

On Easter Wednesday soldiers broke in hall door and came into Mrs.Reynolds room. They smashed all her pictures including including photo of son in Royal Irish Rifles. at present "somewhere in France". She also states they fired shots and smashed ceiling, delph and so forth for no apparent reason.

Claim    £10-0-0

---

Costs    £1-1-0

Dated the 1st June 1916

Edward McHugh

Solicitor

43 Rutland Square

Dublin

Cl not-recd

K 79 16