~~Post~~

Dear Sir:

I beg to submit a claim for £ 3. 5. 0. in respect of a bicycle the property of my son, who is employed as a Boy messenger in the G.P.O.
He was on duty in the Instrument Room on Easter Monday, having deposited the

bicycle in the basement of the Post office, when the volunteer took possession of the building he was obliged to leave, without getting an opportunity of recovering the machine. It was the purchase of his small savings, and it will be a great hardship if he is now compelled to suffer its loss. I sent on the claim and the original receipt to the Postal authorities but have been informed that they disclaim all responsibility.

If my claim is not in order with your committee I shall be obliged if you will forward it to the proper authority.

Yours Truly

T. A. Tutty

for ever

James J. Healy Esq.

Secretary

Fire Loss Committee.
