Catholic & General Insee. Asscn.

Sir,

We beg to inform you, the Military took possession of the offices 22 Westmoreland Street, and remained there we understand three days. On the premises being examined after occupation, it was found a carpet value £6. was missing. The doors were burst open, a glass screen was smashed, and to put the premises in their former condition would cost £9.

We are instructed by our clients to make an application to you for compensation.

Yours faithfully,

The Claims Officer,
