Refers to memo Montgomery

Dear Sir.

Re property losses 188

I herewith beg to put before you, the circumstance not mentioned in above claim in the possibility of receiving some money grant on a/c or for the information of how I can do so. Thanking you in Anticipation

I was caretaker of the premises 34 Lower Abbey St. in the receipt of 18/6 per week and apartments for 25 years, on the 27th April last I had to leave on account of the fire, practically speaking in the clothes I stood & take refuge in the Custom House, on the 3rd May I left the above & have been living on friends ever since, I have now taken a room at 92 Marlboro Street my two sisters residing with me. As you see I am without money & employment I will be thankful for some help to tide over the present Crisis, until the settlement of the claim

Kindly note change of address from see Marlboro: St. to above.

Yours faithfully
Kate Doyle
