This girl's property was lost through the Hotel in which she was employed being consumed in the conflagration. She is now in service at the Shelbourne Hotel where I had an interview with her. She seems most

Interests in the buildings respectable and her claim appears to have been honestly made out.

Reference will have to be made to the policies on the Metropole in order to ascertain if there was any insurance on employees' property. The amount (if any) will probably be found quite inadequate to cover the losses.

Payment recommended £11.16. 0.
