The Secretary,

Property Loss Committee 1916
Dublin.

Dear Sir,

I herewith enclose particulars of my claim for damages caused during the rebellion. You will note that the amount is $\frac{1}{4}$ in excess of my first claim as I found upon calculating the value of the goods that I had underestimated my loss in the first instance. I only made a rough guess of the value then.

Has a cl. been found in this case?

Previous forms have not been furnished. 29/7/16

Claim (letter) referred to attached.
