Mr. Healy
Sir,

We rendered an account to the Military Authorities, amounting to £500 for the appropriation and use of our S/S "Lady Wimborne" during the period of the rebellion, and under date of 12th inst., we were officially informed that our claim, together with all correspondence had been passed on to the Civil Authorities, through you. We shall therefore, feel glad if you will be good enough to inform us how the matter stands, and when we may expect payment.

We are,

Your very obedient servants,

I. Ack.
II. Mr. Healy.
