There is not sufficient evidence to identify the unit concerned.
I have tried all
Bros of the Dublin
who were in Dublin
without result.

I do not therefore propose to take disciplinary action.

Sir,

re Claim of John Condon, Leeds Woollen Hall, Cornmarket, Dublin

Replying to yours of 13th inst., - as far as my client knows, it was the Royal Dublin Fusiliers who were in occupation of his premises during the Rebellion.

Yours faithfully,

E. Collins

Lower Castle Yard,
Dublin.

Sir,

I am instructed by Mr John Condon of Leeds Woollen Hall, Cornmarket, Dublin, to send you claim for damage done to his premises by the Military, and also for goods taken by them.

My client handed over full possession of the premises to the Military, and they were in sole occupation of the premises while the damage was done.

Yours faithfully,

E. F. Collins
