Dear Sir I enclose to letter sent for me - in which letter the following number was mentioned as being quoted in reply 8531.
I beg to state that my losses during Rebellion in Dublin - amount to £100. I wrote at first £60; but as time went on, I missed more & more articles of my description: besides clothing: my books & papers etc: had been cleared up all my belongings, a very great loss to me as I have to replace them; & now it is impossible for me to replace two letters were taken for my room & my writing case etc etc So I do hope my claim will be considered. The Sir Fins got into the house I was living in: - I left it on Wed after Easter Monday: on my feet: & just took what I could have - a small bag with a few things & when I returned to the house after they had settled down I found all my property gone - boxes of my books broken & a box carried away. it is dreadful for me & I do hope it will be paid the value. I just wish to mention before

I received letter 8531. I had been told to apply to Mr. Kidney F.S.A.A

so; I was then told it was all the same - applying to him & the War Office London & I heard from there saying the subject, if my losses dry Bill had been forwarded to Secretary

Irish Office Old Queen St.
Westminster - I write you this as it may look as if I had applied twice intentionally - I have not been able to write sooner as I have been so shaken by all I went through in Dublin; during Rebellion.

Dear Sir. I have lost a great deal of property during this Rebellion in Dublin. I was at the Ladies' Club in Stephens Green. - had to leave it & all my belongings; in the middle of the fighting it was so dangerous there I ran home, leaving all my property in the Club, looked up in boxes etc. when I got back to Club on Thursday following: the Sir Jims being got into Club on Thursday before that; & when I got back all my clothes & property I had left there, had been taken; a great great loss to me: just wholesale robbing: & some things hard to replace. Please excuse this dreadful writing as I'm so shaking & all my nice writing paper taken. I understand you a list of articles & value as you desire if you will let me know: each day I number articles I have lost. I am writing in a hurry.

From

Mrs. Stuart Duckett,

Russelstown, Park, Carlow.

now: as I am advised to do so;
- when I have time - feel better. I will make out a list of all I have lost & send it to you. I think about £60 would cover my losses. I had to walk away from Ladies' Club; as one could not possibly drive & walking was very dangerous, so I myself brought a few things in by hand & as I am being moving about having lost my husband, I have not settled home yet. I had a great time travelling with me — I am at present at Buswells Hotel Molesworth St Dublin, so if you will let me know I wish to see you please — I am told you are the person to refer to for compensation Truly Yours Dusket
