Dear Sir

I beg to draw your attention to my mother's claim for Compensation No. 212. I was with the Civil assessors Messrs Walter Hume & Co some three weeks ago. Since then I have heard nothing, as we are still at the home with friends and trying to pay our way my mother being an invalid. I am employed in Kelly's for Dame Street and am anxious to get a home of our own together soon as possible. Therefore I will feel indebted to you by your giving the matter your very kind attention.

Reply that the Committee recommended in respect of his claim was sent to the Under Secretary Dublin County Council since

17/8/16

Respectfully Yours

Kate Dwyer
