Sir,

Re Claim Mary Bridget Murray for Damages to Property at 30 Lower Abbey Street, Dubl Dublin

We shall esteem it a favour if the Claim of above Lady for Compensation can be immediately dealt with.

She is a skilled Silk worker and has worked for many years past for Messrs Clery & Co Ltd. The loss of her entire belongings, Machine, Working Utensils, Material etc., is a very serious matter for her, and but for the kindness and assistance received from friends she would be in a very bad way. She urges that the Claim should receive the earliest possible attention.

We shall be glad to hear from you in reference.

We are, Sir,

your obedient Servants,

W. Dobbyn & Co

The Secretary,

Property Losses (Ireland) Committee

Dear Sir-

We have been consulted by our client Mrs Bridget Murray who carries on the business of ~~restaurant~~ restaurateur at 164 Capel Street Dublin regarding damage caused to her shop furniture caused by the removal of same to form barricades by the military on 26th April last.

Our client's furniture suffered considerable damage as a result which she estimates at £16-3-4 and we give below a list showing her loss.

We think it only fair to mention, fearing any misapprehension, that our client, following the general practice which seems to obtain in the city, furnished her claim to the Property Losses Committee Stephens Green, but we personally are inclined to think, without committing ourselves to this view, that you are the proper authority to deal with her claim. Of course if she is compensated by the military authorities, she will withdraw her claim furnished to the Property Losses Committee.

Dear Sir -

I beg to inform you that on Wednesday the 26th day of April last the Military removed from my shop at above address seven tables, one dozen chairs, and a large mat to make barricades in the streets. I have had to replace the tables and chairs to enable me to carry on my business as I only succeeded in getting back a couple of the chairs and two tables, one of which was in a broken condition.

I am informed that by applying to the Authorities I will receive ample compensation and therefore await and early reply.

Yours faithfully
Bridget Murray (W^m)
