Dear Sirs,

We are in receipt of your favour of yesterday, and presumed you would infer from our original letter advising you of this lootage, that charges were bound to be made on same. Our contract earning this freight, was covered by transporting the goods from London to Dublin, for which service we shall require to be recouped by you.

We would, therefore, advise you to adjust your claim upon the Government, and send us a remittance for the 6/5d. at your earliest convenience. We herewith return our account.

Yours truly,
