Gentn.,

Respecting enclosed statement, we shall be glad to hear from you as to payment for same. It is now nine months since the goods were lost, and surely by this time a settlement could have been made.

Will you kindly look into this forthwith and write us, and much oblige.

Yours faithfully,

Gentn.,

Respecting the enclosed invoice for goods lost in transit to Mr. J. W. Coote of Athy during the late rebellion, value £27. 5. 7, we beg to remind you that you acknowledged our claim last July but since then we have not heard from you.

We hear from various friends in Dublin that their accounts for losses have been met some time back, and we must therefore ask you to tell us something definite as to when we shall receive the above mentioned sum.

Yours faithfully,

C.K.
