I
Inform writes that Mr Egan's claim his claim No 231 A which was reported on to you on 22 Decr (30th Dec)

Re Mr J. Egan. Mr King

Decr. 29.12.16
II Attach to 231 A
Dear Sir

In reference to my call today I would be glad to be sure that a claim for £6.9.7 balance of a claim sent in to Major James on the 1st June for food &c and which I was informed by him in a letter dated July 11th had been forwarded to the Under Secretary who subsequently informed me in a letter dated 5th August 1916, that it had been sent on to you, is before you. This is of course distinct from the claim for stolen jewellery (which was also at foot in my letter of the 1st June but which was seemingly overlooked.)

J. J. Healy Esq.
Sec. Prov. Council.

Yours truly
Daniel C. Maher

13th December,

re Claim of W. J. Egan.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 11th instant which has been referred here by the Chief Secretary's Office, I am directed by the Committee to state that Mr W. J. Egan's first claim No. 231, which was reported on to the Government on 25th August last, did not include anything in respect of jewellery looted. He called here recently and stated that owing to a misunderstanding no claim in respect of jewellery had been made on the Committee's form. Fresh forms were then sent him, which he returned completed, and this claim No. 231A. is now with an Inspector for enquiries.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

P. W. J. Egan

Dear Sir In answer to a Claim which I sent in on behalf of Mr W J Egan of 130 North King St, in pursuance of an advertisement in the paper, for compensation for Jewellery, food &c taken by the military quartered on him during the recent Rebellion, I received a letter from Major Moore Headquarters Park Gate dated 24 June stating that the military authorities did not admit liability for such losses as Jewellery &c but that my claim had been forwarded to the civil authority, i.e. the Under Secretary Dublin Castle. As to another part of the Claim distinct from this Claim for Jewellery, namely, for food, drink Cigarettes &c, Major Moore informed me in a subsequent letter dated the 11th July last that he was sending on also to the Under Secretary a Claim for £6-9- by a balance remaining after payment of a sum of 15/- which amount they only held themselves responsible for. I would be much obliged if you would let me know how have these Claims been dealt with, as 6 months have elapsed since they were furnished.

The Under Secretary
Dublin Castle

Yours truly
Daniel C. Maher
