I interviewed the Applicant herein and carefully investigated the claim. I am informed the damage was caused by the firing of the Military. The glass only of the Mirror was broken, and I inquired from a first class Interests in the buildings

Firm the cost of replacing same in frame. For the best quality 30/-would fully cover this. The Curtains which are of the cheap quality to be found in this class of house were only pierced by a few bullets.

Dear Sir.

Mrs Crofts, 109, Seville Place, has handed me the enclosed formal notice together with two Blue Forms, which you have asked her to complete and return to you.

I would respectfully point out that this claim was lodged with you on the 6th July and that I hold your receipt for same dated 7th July.

I will be glad to know if the papers have in any way been mislaid or if I can render you any further assistance in this matter.

Yours truly.
