GENERAL POST OFFICE, DUBLIN.

22nd August 1916.

Sir,

With reference to your application of the 10th July, I have to inform you that careful enquiry has been made but no evidence has been obtained which would afford ground for thinking that the parcel sent on the 20th April to Messrs. The Perfect Dairy Machines, Ltd., 105 Middle Abbey Street, Dublin, was not duly delivered as addressed.

The record of delivered parcels kept at the place to which the missing parcel was addressed has been destroyed by fire and in the circumstances the Department cannot accept any responsibility in the matter.

WITH reference to your application relative to a missing parcel addressed to Messrs Perfect Davy Machine Ltd. Dublin

I have to request that you will be good enough to fill up the enclosed Form, and return it to me, in order that proper inquiry may be made.

The inquiry will be much facilitated by full and accurate replies to the questions in the Form.

Should the parcel be found, I shall be glad if you will let me know at once, and if its delay has apparently arisen from any irregularity in the Post Office, the cover should be sent to me for inquiry.
