Dear Sir. 67 & 68. Abbey St.

Nearly six weeks ago I called on you but not wishing to trespass on your valuable time I interviewed one of your chief assistants with reference to the small claim of £10.0 for money paid by me under pressure of Corporation legal proceedings to pull down inner walls.
 Word was brought to me that you had called Mr. James Spence attention to my claim and that it was combined with the claim of my tenant J. Collins and.

Dear Sir,
67 T68 Noyes St.

Referring to our interview and my claim. You were kind enough to say that it would be forwarded to Mr. Home together with the Statement by the Corporation & have the changeable wall pulled down and the receipt I paid therefor. On calling on Mr. Home yesterday he informed me that he had not yet received them. May I beg your kind attention to this.

Yours truly
