Dear Sir,

I made a claim to you for damage done to my office by "looting and rifle fire" some time ago.

Since the "Rebellion" I have been unable to open my office or carry on my work of "Illuminating Art."

Thanking you in anticipation

I remain

Yours Truly

Wm. Fitzpatrick

everything I possessed was destroyed and I am unable to re-slick, through want of "Capital"

I therefore appeal to your kind consideration to urge my claim for compensation to give me some money on account
in order to let me start over more.

I have five people
totally dependent on me and I am obliged to the large of madnes. I cannot pay rent. etc. as my financial ~~resources~~ are very limited at present;

and the work I have
in hand I cannot finish as I have no
material to work with

I shall be glad to hear from you
per return.

Dear Sir,

I would feel grateful
if you could advance
me £50-0-0. on account
re. my claim made to you for damage done
to my Office during the "Rebellion" by taking and rifle fire. at-

as I cannot - re-stock
my financial resources
being very limited at present;

Since the Rebellion
I could not carry on my work of Illumining Art. and all
my materials are destroyed, and I cannot get them unless I

Stop any work.

I therefore ask you to ~~charge~~ my claim for $5000-00 on account to try and enable me to get some stock in hands.

Dear Sir

Informed Committee's recommendation sent to Govt.

226. 5/9/16.

Re - my claim
3rd 3rd Lower C. Council &

I am nearly distressed as my affairs have been utterly mixed up
since I have been unable to start, as I have no means to do
so. I have pressing claims on me for int-

due, and shall probably have a Sheriff's process on me for rent, as I have been served
with a notice to that effect, and the lady
cash which was lent
was to go toward paying my rent. I therefore appeal to you to do something for me, as I have a Brother dying
of Paralysis, and.

a very dear mother
will you kindly try
and let me have £5-0-0 on account; in order that I may
pay the rent which is over-due in order to keep the roof over
us.

Trusting for a favourable
reply per return

Dear Sirs.

In reply to your letter re-claim your representatives saw the condition in which my studio was left.

The stock of card-boards, paints, brushes etc. have been bought from time to time from different agents in Paris & Germany.

My late Father's cartoons & sketches varied from £2-2-0 to £5-5-0 each. they are gone.

The cash I had in my studio was money which I was paid and was to go to pay rent etc.

all my valuable manuscripts are destroyed beyond recognition and I will never be able to replace them these are things collected by my late Father. who established the
