The General Officer in Command,
Head Quarters,
Dublin.

Sir,

I am instructed by Mr Thomas Paul of the Post Office, 173 North King Street, Dublin, to apply to you for compensation amounting to the sum of £62. 1. 0 - which does not include the breaking of the Windows - for damage done to my client's premises by the Military while in occupation of same.

It would appear that the Military went in and took possession, and I have a list of the full amount of damage done to the premises, which I will duly forward to you. I am awaiting an estimate from Messrs Dockrell & Sons., for the putting in of the Windows broken.

I will be glad to hear from you at once in reference to this matter.

Yours faithfully,

Eugene Collins
