Dear Sir

During the recent trouble in the City the Military Commanded a newly decorated flat at 67 Lower Worset St where a number of Soldiers were billeted thus preventing my selling the Flat to a desirable tenant

ready to occupy them When the Soldiers vacated the premises I found them in a bad condition the new paper and painting being very soiled and consequently necessitating further expenditure Having regard to this I submit my claim for occupation and compensation

For damage done. Say at least four pounds.

Awaiting the favours of a reply

Yours

E. M. Webb
