Joseph Ford

REPORTED ON BY COMMITTEE

10 NOV. 1978

54 Parrell St. No 263

Mr. Cyprian, the Inspector who reported on this case, affirmed that the roof and top story of these premises have been taken down as the result of the Corporation order. He was satisfied as the result of independent inquiries that a certain amount of damage had been done ^{during the disturbances} to the interior of the premises, which was standing, but having regard to their condition at the time he valued such damage at £4 only. Claimant was negotiating for a sale of his interest in the premises and site in Apr. 1916.

Corporation inquiry re grant to
J. Ford in respect of 54 Parnell St.

Mr Taylor,

The claim received by the Committee in this case was for £20 in respect of damage stated to have been done to shop doors, glass and shop fittings. After investigation the Committee recommended a payment of £4 on foot of the damage to doors and glass.

None of the damage resulting from the disturbances was of such a character as to necessitate the reconstruction or alteration of the building.

The Under Secretary,
Dublin Castle.

Sir,

Mr Joseph Ford of 5 Parnell Street has applied to the Corporation for a loan for the rebuilding of the house 54 Parnell Street, basing his application on the statement that he received compensation from the Property Losses Committee in respect of damage inflicted upon the premises during the rebellion. The Corporation obtained and had executed in the year 1915 an order for the taking down of the premises, and before going into the question of making an advance to Mr Ford the Corporation is anxious to know the particulars of the claim of Mr Ford to the Property Losses Committee and the grounds on which he was awarded the sum which he claims to have received.

Your obedient servant,
(Sd.) IGNATIUS J. RICE,
Law Agent.
