Dear Sir

Please excuse delay
I sent for Policy & wrong one was sent.

I enclose original
Will you please be very careful to return it
as it is the basis of my new Policy for a car.

I may mention that I should have valued some of the items at a higher rate than I did. Can I amend this now?

Dear Lee

I regret extremely that Policy of insurance M. U. has been lost.

If I had had it I
should have demanded
payment from

them 9 months ago
for loss of my car
instead of affixing
to your Dept.

You have obtained
copy of it from the M. C. people.

E. J. M. Brewster

Capt.

In any case you have letter from M. C. I. Co which I sent you, which certifies that none of the articles I now claim for are covered in them.

Dear Sir

With reference to my claim (which
the Committee in meeting first week in December decided was payable
by the Motor Union Insurance Co) I beg to enclose a letter with reference to part of same, &

to beg the consideration of the Committee to the items which were not covered by my Policy viz £14.5.0. I may say that the items
of it are entirely

underestimated & I ought to have claimed a higher figure in each case.

faithfully y<sup>r</sup>s

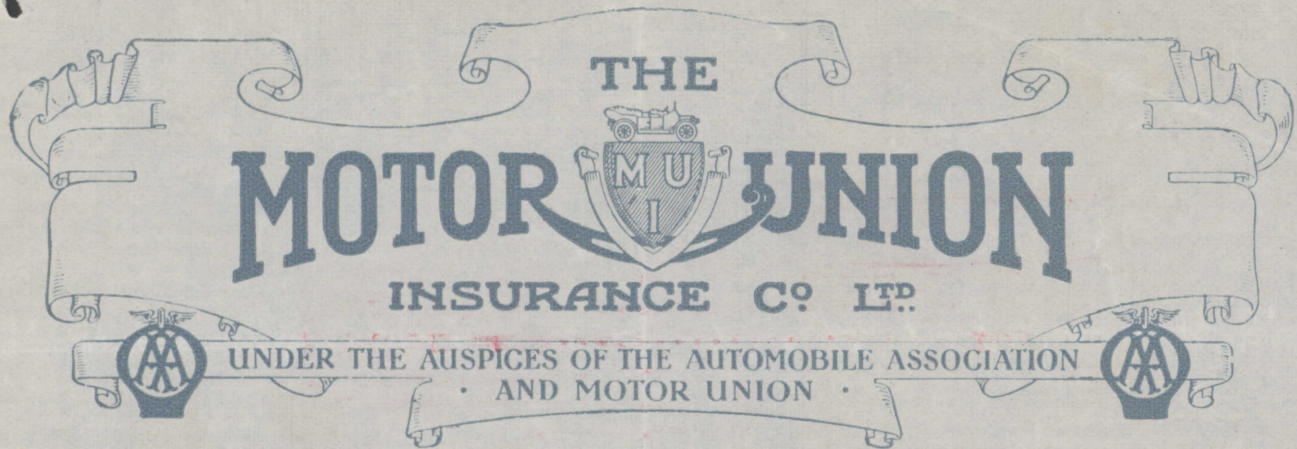

E. J. M. Bruce

Kindly reply direct to myself not to Messrs Cochrane
