Dear Sir, Claim 2518 - Egan.

I am informed by Mr. Seales, Solicitor, that there is a next of kin in America. The estate is less than £100 and under the circumstances the Solicitor hopes the Committee will not ask him to go to the expense of taking out an Administration. Claimant, Miss Mary Egan, is deceased's sister, and resided with him prior to his death.

Yours truly,

James Swift

The claimant lives with his sister Mary Egan, at 6 Cos. Abbey St. The shock sustained by him at the time of the disturbances combined with a severe cold caught that brought on pneumonia from which he died after a very short illness. There are no brothers - Constance Egan married in Dublin and Patrick Egan, unmarried, employed as a hawker in England. Mary Egan is to see whether her 2 brothers were ever authorized for payment to her if such sum as may be awarded by the Committee in this case
