go down to the district and personally to remonstrate with the Chairman of the Company regarding its inaction. The Company seem now at last to have come to a sense of the serious position in which they stand, and have tried to hire engines from other Companies, and to get together a staff for the necessary repairs to the engines. They have not been able to achieve either of these objects, but they have received an offer from Messrs Hudswell and Clarke of Leeds, to carry out repairs to their engines, provided that permission is obtained from the Ministry of Munitions. The Company have applied to the Ministry for this permission, and the Board have written to the Ministry strongly supporting the application, not out of sympathy for the Company, but because they are convinced that the immediate repair of the engines is necessary ~~both~~ for the convenience and even the safety of the travelling public, and to enable any

Dear Sir

I enclose application forms filled up in duplicate

There being no magistrate for the county on the island.

I was obliged to have it witnessed by a J.P. for the county of Galway who ~~I hope this~~ was stationed here.

I hope this will be found in order, but if not if you would send me two fresh forms, I would get leave to go to the mandate for a local magistrate.

I am Yrs Faithfully
