Claim No. 2676 Name of Claimant Richard J. Lawson, Taxi-Cab Owner, of Tullow, Co. Carlow.

Situation of Property at J. J. Keating's Garage, 32 & 33, Lower Abbey Street, Dublin.

Description	Claim	Insurance (if any)	Commissioners Valuation of Buildings	Assessors Valuation of full Damage	Loss Payable on basis of Insurance	Excess of Loss over and above amount payable under the Policies
12-20 H.P. Humber Motor Car & Accessories.	£ 200	+ Nil		£ 150	Nil	£ 150
See Memo at foot hereof.
TOTALS, £	200	Nil		£ 150	Nil	£ 150

+ At the time of the Disturbances, Claimant's Motor Car was being repaired at the Garage owned by J.J. Keating, 33 Lower Abbey Street. Keating insured Motor Cars &c. his own, in trust or on commission for which he is responsible whilst on his premises. Keating's insurance on Stock &c. amounts to £1000, and his claim for Stock amounts to £2250. If the Committee decide to make payment and cheque be drawn in the joint names of the Claimant Richard J. Lawson and the Garage owner J.J. Keating, it would prevent any duplicating in Keating's claim in regard to this Car, or to the repairs effected thereto by latter.

Dear Sir

I appeal to you to kindly let me have a settlement for a motorcar which was burned out at J. J. Heatings 34 Le Abbey Street. I left this car in for sale and to have some repairs done to it, for which as you will see by the enclosed that Mr Heating is sending me a bill for £20. I owe the National Bank £150 and The Munster & Leinster £50 and am paying high interest on this for the past 10 months. I was depending on the sale of this car to pay my debts. I do hope you will consider my case, and let me have a settlement as soon as possible. My claim £200 was made by Mr. D. J. Byrne solicitor Barlow

yours faithfully
