Dear Sir, Claim 2765 - Gilliland.

I made enquiries into this case and satisfied myself that Mr. Gilliland was staying at the Imperial Hotel during the disturbances last Easter. He is very well-known amongst the Staff, and Mr. Begley, the Secretary of Messrs. Clery and Company has also met him. The Claimant ~~also~~ produced receipts for several of the items mentioned on the form. Under the circumstances I recommend payment of £45: 10/-.

Yours truly,

Dublin-

Dear Sir

Yours of 7th inst received regarding my claim before the Property Losses Ireland Committee.

The small items of personal wear & use, were purchased for cash at various shops in Dublin & Belfast as required. I am unable to give you receipts as for these, but having for some ^{few} years past - spent several months of the year in residence at the Imperial Hotel Dublin - the servants can vouch for them - I enclose receipt for the diamond ring & copy receipt for suit destroyed - for the suit case & shawl. I haven't retained the receipts but enclose accounts received lately for replicas I ordered of those lost.

The watch bracelet referred to on receipt for the ring. Cost -

L4.12.6 - but this I had sent off by post ~~last~~ day. so it of course does not appear in my claim.
I find most of these articles have cost me considerably more to replace than they cost. However I trust you will find all is ⁱⁿ order for a prompt

Settlement,

Yours truly
