Baird & Tatlock (London) Ltd.

Cancelled

Presumably claimed by Messrs A. Guinness & Co
S. G. A. Cameron. &
Messrs J. Plunkett & Co

2803

W. E. Merrick Sobr 42 Fleet
St. asked to see the attached invoices today. I showed them to him and he informed me that Messrs Baird & Tatlock would not put in a claim as they disclaimed responsibility.
They have in fact been paid for the goods by two of the consignees (See Charles Cameron and Plunkett & Co) and expect to be paid by Messrs Gunniss. Presumably claims will be put in or have been put in by these three consignees.

Dear Sir,

By instructions from the British & Irish Steam Packet Co Ltd, their reference 56039, we beg to enclose you herewith invoices for the cases lost on their way to Messrs A. Guinness Son & Co, Sir C. A. Cameron, and Messrs J Plunkett & Co.

The British & Irish Steam Packet Co say that they anticipate the Government will make some recompense to the cargo owners; we desire however to point out we are not the cargo owners, as we do not pay carriage, all our goods being sold exwarehouse, but we understand from the firms in question that we are <sup>to</sup> send invoices on to you, <sup>as</sup> of course we hold them responsible.

Awaiting you reply,
We remain

Yours faithfully, FOR BAIRD & TATLOCK (LONDON) LTD
