Dear Sir

I write in the interest of above claimant to see and expedite the payment of his small claim for effects destroyed by fire in 62 Mid Abbey Street during the rebellion. He is a respectable poor man 85 years presently without any resources and only living on temporary assistance. It would be a real charity to give him the small amount of his honest claim which will be all. He has to live on for remainder of his existence.

May I bespeak on his behalf your kind attention,
Yours faithfully

Thos. P. Purcell
