This Policy of Insurance Witnesseth THAT P.H.Keogh, Esq.,

31, Batchelors Walk, Dublin.

hereinafter called the insured, having paid to the LONDON AND COUNTY PLATE GLASS INSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED, hereinafter called the Company, the sum of ^{Two} pounds ^{Ten} shillings, and ⁻⁻⁻⁻ pence, for Insuring against breakages the property hereinafter described as per proposal made by the Insured, none of the Glass therein named being horizontally placed or movable, unless so expressed in such proposal, namely:—

PARTICULARS AS PER ATTACHED SCHEDULE.

MEMO.—It is hereby declared and agreed that this Policy does not include breakage or damage to glass occasioned by or happening through Invasion, Foreign Enemy, Hostilities, Military or Usurped Power.

The above Glass situate as aforesaid (Occupied by Publican)

The Company hereby agrees with the Insured (but subject to the Conditions set forth within and on the back hereof, which are to be taken as part of this Policy) that if the property above described or any part thereof shall be broken or destroyed by or from any cause whatsoever, unless the same shall arise from or in consequence of Fire, between the Twentyfifth day of March 1916 and the Twentyfifth day of March 1917 both inclusive, or at any time afterwards so long as the Insured shall pay to the Company the sum required for the renewal of this Policy on or before the Twentyfifth day of March in each succeeding year, and the Directors of the said Company for the time being shall agree to accept the same, the Stock and Funds of the said Company shall be subject and liable to pay and make good to the said Insured, his, her, or their executors, administrators, and assigns, all such damage and loss which the said Insured shall suffer on or in respect of, or which shall happen to the said property hereinbefore mentioned and described by or from any cause whatever, saving the exceptions hereinbefore specified.

Provided always, and it is hereby expressly declared, that the Funds and Property of the Company shall alone be answerable for the payment of the monies insured by this Policy; and that no Director of the Company by whom this Policy is signed, nor any other Proprietor of the Company, shall be responsible for the payment of or contribution towards the monies insured by this Policy, or be liable to any demand against the Company on any pretence whatsoever, beyond the amount of the unpaid part, for the time being, of his or her Share or Shares in the subscribed capital of the Company; and that no person insured by the Company shall be liable to any demand against the Company on any pretence whatsoever.

In Witness whereof, we, one of the Directors and the Manager or Secretary have hereunto set our hands and the Seal of the Company, this Fifteenth day of May 1916

CONDITIONS OF INSURANCE.

I Any material misdescription of any of the property proposed to be hereby insured, or any mis-statement of or omission to state any fact material to be known for estimating the risk, renders this Policy void as to the property affected by such misdescription, mis-statement or omission, respectively. II The premiums for insurance (except in the case of special Policies, granted for short terms) are to be paid yearly; and all persons desirous of continuing their insurance shall, as long as the Directors of the Company agree thereto, make their future payment annually to the Company, within ten days after the expiration of the year, or forfeit the benefit of the Policy. On insurances for short terms the premium will be as moderate as possible, and only a proportionate part of the premium charged; but in such instances these insurances will terminate at four o'clock in the evening of the day specified in the Policy, without any allowance of ten days. III In case of breakage an immediate notice thereof in writing must be given to the secretary of the Company before the removal of the glass from its position. The claimant must, within three days, deliver an account, stating the particulars of the loss sustained; and make proof of the same, by the production of such further evidence as may reasonably be required; and if any fraud shall appear in the claim made for such loss, or if any false declaration shall have been made in support thereof, or if no claim shall be made within such an account of the loss or breakage, and so verified as before mentioned, within the space of ten days from the happening of the loss, or if any alterations shall have been begun before notice is given as aforesaid, or, should any damage occur during the said alterations, the insured shall be excluded from all benefit by virtue of his Policy. IV In case any person who shall have effected any Policy with the Company shall by himself or herself, or his or her agents or procurements, willfully or knowingly break or destroy the property so insured, or any part thereof, or willfully or knowingly do, or concur in, or conive at any act, matter or thing, whereby or by means whereof the same may or shall be broken or destroyed, as aforesaid, then, and in any such case, such Policy and all payments made in respect thereof shall be absolutely forfeited to the Company, unless such Policy shall have been assigned bona fide and for a valuable consideration to a party not cognizant of or implicated in the fraud, as the case may be; and notice of such assignment shall have been given to the secretary of the Company, within one calendar month, before such loss; in which case only such Policy shall be valid to the extent of the interest of the assignee therein; and provided also, that if any person or persons shall willfully or otherwise break or destroy any property insured by the Company, then and in every such case the party or parties holding the Policy or Policies in respect of the property so broken or destroyed, shall either himself or themselves prosecute to conviction according to law the person or persons by whom such damage or destruction shall have been committed, the Directors reserving to themselves the right of demanding such prosecution; and in the exercise of such right, paying the expenses of such prosecution. Further, the insured shall either himself or themselves, when required by the Directors, inform the Company of the name and address of such person or persons, and give to the Company or the Directors, their Agents or Officers, and so generally assist and give all such information as may be necessary to enable the Company either to prosecute according to law such person or persons, or to recover from him or them compensation for the loss occasioned to the Company by such breakage. V In case any person who shall have effected any Policy with the Company shall by himself or herself, or his or her agents or procurements, willfully or knowingly break or destroy the property so insured, or any part thereof, or willfully or knowingly do, or concur in, or conive at any act, matter or thing, whereby or by means whereof the same may or shall be broken or destroyed, as aforesaid, then, and in any such case, such Policy and all payments made in respect thereof shall be absolutely forfeited to the Company, unless such Policy shall have been assigned bona fide and for a valuable consideration to a party not cognizant of or implicated in the fraud, as the case may be; and notice of such assignment shall have been given to the secretary of the Company, within one calendar month, before such loss; in which case only such Policy shall be valid to the extent of the interest of the assignee therein; and provided also, that if any person or persons shall willfully or otherwise break or destroy any property insured by the Company, then and in every such case the party or parties holding the Policy or Policies in respect of the property so broken or destroyed, shall either himself or themselves prosecute to conviction according to law the person or persons by whom such damage or destruction shall have been committed, the Directors reserving to themselves the right of demanding such prosecution; and in the exercise of such right, paying the expenses of such prosecution. Further, the insured shall either himself or themselves, when required by the Directors, inform the Company of the name and address of such person or persons, and give to the Company or the Directors, their Agents or Officers, and so generally assist and give all such information as may be necessary to enable the Company either to prosecute according to law such person or persons, or to recover from him or them compensation for the loss occasioned to the Company by such breakage. VI That in the event of any breakage occurring to any glass insured by the Company, it shall be at their absolute option and discretion either to pay to the person or persons holding the Policy or Policies in respect of the property broken, the current value of glass insured on such Policy or Policies, or at the expense and out of the funds of the Company, to repair and make good such loss, and restore the property broken as soon as the same can be equitably reinstated, the Company not being responsible for any delay or damage of any kind during the time intervening between the report of a claim received and the replacement thereof. VII If any alteration shall be made, or change or other event shall occur in or about or in anywise relating to any property insured by the Company against loss at any time after such insurance shall have been effected, so as to increase the risk or hazard of such loss, it shall be the duty of the person or persons who either originally or by assignment shall be entitled to such insurance forthwith to leave notice of the fact, nature and extent of such risk, at the Chief Office of the Company, and the Directors shall thereupon be entitled to make such alterations in the terms of such Policy as they shall think under the circumstances of the case to be fit; and in case any such person or persons, so entitled, as aforesaid, shall for one calendar month or upwards after any such change, or until a breakage shall happen, whether within such one calendar month or not, fraudulently neglect or omit to leave such notice, or shall, after leaving such notice, refuse to concur in the alterations in the terms of the Policy consequent thereupon, which shall be proposed by the Directors, such Policy shall be absolutely forfeited to the Company. VIII Frames of any and every description stand at the risk of the insured. All salvage to be preserved by the insured, the same being the property of the Company. The Directors will not, except by special agreement, replace silvered or embossed glass, or glass in any way ornamented, but as plain plate glass. Window fittings or other obstructions to replacement to be removed by the insured, and at his expense. The liability of taking not on the Company. IX In case any difference or dispute shall arise between the insured and the Company, touching any breakage, such difference shall be submitted to the judgment and determination of arbitrators, one to be nominated by the Company, and the other by the insured; and the referees so nominated shall, previously to undertaking the reference, agree upon an umpire, whose decision shall be final, in case such referees disagree, and the expense of such reference to go with the award.
