Dear Sir

I have received an order for £1.12.0
in respect of above claim - with no explanation
as to its reduction to this small amount.
I cannot account for this except by assuming that the damage to the motor has been included?

I would be obliged by your returning
at your convenience the Insurance Policy which I sent to you about 19 July.

*under this Policy
the loss for the fire was £1000
cl. only £500. The Policy of house & contents are separate policies.*

Yours faithfully

Remarks

I found on examination that the Motor Union Coy. under its Policy - N^o 23,233 - is liable, in the absence of Prof. &c. clause, for the 1st two items in this claim, and it would be advisable to notify claimant to this effect, in order that he may seek compensation thereunder elsewhere.

As the remaining three items in the claim, aggregating £1.12/-, appear to be reasonable, and do not come within the scope of the insurance, I consider that claimant should be compensated accordingly.

Dear Sir:-

We have your letter of the 6th inst. with reference to your "TALBOT" Car and have noted all your remarks.

We very much regret to hear what has happened but are sorry an Insurance Policy would not provide for a matter of this kind. We would add however that the Government are dealing with all claims of this description and we would therefore advise you to lodge a claim with the proper Authorities.
