Dear Sir,

re, Claim - William Derham, Skerries.

Some time ago I furnished the Military Authorities with a claim on behalf of Mr. William Derham, ^{Holmpatrick} Skerries, County Dublin, together with an estimate for repairs. After some time the Military Authorities wrote that they could not admit liability as the damage arose in the course of putting Skerries in a state of defence and stating they had forwarded the papers to the Under Secretary on behalf of the Civil Authorities.

I communicated with the Under Secretary and have received a reply copy of which I send you herewith.

I shall be glad to know whether you have received the claim and estimate and correspondence in the matter.

Yours faithfully,

Dublin.

Dear Sir,

re, Claim of William Derham of Holmpatrick, Skerries, Co. Dublin.

I furnished to the Military Authorities particulars of a claim of my client, Mr. William Derham, Holmpatrick, Skerries, in respect of injuries caused by the Military during the occupation of his premises at Skerries.

I sent an estimate of Messrs Smith & Pearson for the repairs, and detailed particulars of the damage done to the lands,
and added three guineas for my own costs.

I have now received a letter from the Military Head Quarters, Phoenix Park, stating they cannot accept any liability, and that the claim had been forwarded to the Civil Authorities,
i.e., the Under Secretary, Dublin Castle.

I shall be glad to know what is now being done as regards the claim.

Yours faithfully,
