SPECIAL NOTICE TO THE TRADE.

Our CONDIMENT Mustard is sold as a mixed article, and is warranted to be of the finest quality. Our labels and wrappers bear the protecting Notice prescribed by the Sale of Food & Drugs Acts. When CONDIMENT Mustard is sold otherwise than in our sealed tins or packages, Notice of the admixture should be given to the customer by affixing a label "distinctly and legibly written or printed," and "not obscured by other matter on the label."

Our PURE Mustards are WARRANTED to be "the pure flour of the Finest Mustard Seed."

When ordering, our friends are requested to state, with precision, whether Pure, or Condiment, Mustard is required. In the case of loose Mustard, it is suggested that preference should be given to the Pure varieties, so that the trouble of having personally to affix a protecting notice to each package sold may be obviated.

Committee 1916.

Dear Sir,

We are very much obliged to you for yours of the 5th inst;
contents of which we have noted.

At the instance of the B & I. S.P. Co's Agent here in the early part of May, we sent two claims to Mr Kidney; but as customers one after another wrote complaining of the loss of goods we deemed it prudent to await until such times as the whole of the loss could be ascertained.

We are daily hoping no further complaints will arrive, we should therefore be glad to know that, if our claims are made up around about the 18th inst, it would be suitable?

Would you be good enough to advise us whether or not we had better with-draw the two claims above mentioned from Mr Kidney?

Yours faithfully,

FOR J & J COLMAN. LIMITED.

Dear Sirs,

In reply to your letter of the 3rd instant, it will suffice if the summary of the several invoices is entered on the Committee's forms, the invoices in duplicate being attached. When the Declaration has been made on one of the forms, it should be stamped, and all papers sent to me.

Mr Kidney's Association was formed after the recent destruction of property, in Dublin, to press for State assistance, and this Committee has been appointed by the Government to report within certain limitations the amount that should be paid in each case of loss.

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Secretary of the Board Of Works.

DUBLIN?

Dear Sir,

Our representative Mr Heald recently called upon you respecting the looting of some of our goods from the stores of the B & I. S.P. Co.

You were good enough to hand him two blue forms to be filled in in-detail.

The claims we have to make are in respect of goods invoiced and forwarded to sundry customers; each customer's parcel forms the subject of a separate claim; we were wondering therefore whether you would accept invoices in detail for the claims - the summary of which could be entered on your blue form and both, invoices and form, forwarded to your good selves?

We may mention the B & I S.P. Co., have recommended us to forward our claims to Mr R.J. Kidney who is secretary to some association dealing with claims.

May we ask you to be good enough to say if you prefer us to do so?

Yours faithfully,

FOR J & J COLMAN. LIMITED.
