Dear Sir,

Dublin Riots,

April 1916.

Referring to your Circular of July 18th we now have pleasure in handing you form of Claim, with Duplicate, for Goods looted during above together with Postal Order for 10/- which we understand is the levy due on the amount of our Claim £10 .11. 9. Kindly favour us with an acknowledgment of our remittance.

We regret delay in sending but were unable to obtain replies from other Customers to whom goods were shipped at the same time (included in the Insurance cover of £84 on the total shipment) as to whether any of their looted goods were. As far as we can learn our present claim covers all goods lost.

Yours faithfully,

Nobles & Hoare Ltd.
