Dear Sir,

I am in receipt of your esteemed favour of the 5th. inst. and note that the Committee have now dealt with claim and their recommendation will be forwarded to the Irish Government in a few days.

I made enquiries to-day, and as far as I can find out, I am not yet on the list for payment, although several claimants whose claims were put in several days after mine have received cheques.

The matter is one of the greatest importance to me as my season is starting and I am in need of the money in order to deal with my new seasons business.

Would you kindly let me know to whom I can apply or what measures I can take to get immediate consideration for my claim as the matter is of vital importance to me.

Regretting having to trouble you again and thanking you in anticipation.

Yours faithfully,

W. J. Healy

P.S. If it would not be troubling you too much, I would be glad if you would 'phone to this office on receipt of this.

Sir,

Re my claim for office fittings, furniture, etc., late 9, Lr. Sackville Street, :- I understand there is a meeting to-morrow, and I would esteem it a great favour if you could get me a cheque passed. I would not trouble you in the matter, but it is of considerable urgency to me; as a matter of fact it is of vital importance as my season starts in September, and the loss of business through my documents and books being burnt, has been considerable. My greatest loss was consequential which of course I could not claim for, and if my claim was met immediately, it would assist me materially.

recommend. will be

anticipation;
