Passed. In view of the number of men of different units in the station I think it would be impossible to fix the blame on anyone.

To Headquarters, 4/3 Administration,
Irish Command.

I am satisfied that none of the articles are in possession of the men in this Battalion.

Besides the usual weekly kit inspections, I held a muster parade of the Battalion shortly after leaving Kingsbridge station, at which every article in possession of the men was inspected.

I would point out that other troops were in occupation of the station before my arrival with the 2/5th Sherwood Foresters on the 27th April, and after my departure on the 5th May. There were detachments of Reserve Cavalry, Dublin Fusiliers, Irish Rifles, R.A.M.C. &c. in the station between the above dates.

No report of any loss was reported to me during our occupation.
