20 JUL 1916

Dear Sir,

I enclose herewith Claim for my Office furniture and copy Policy of Insurance mentioned therein.

I also enclose Claim by my Partner Mr A. E. Prentice for the furniture belonging to him. We are claiming our furniture separately, as under the arrangement which we made when I took him into partnership, we were each to own our own furniture.

We shall be shortly sending on our Partnership Solicitors Claim.

Yours faithfully,

Robert N. Matheson

do hereby solemnly and sincerely declare that on or about the 28th day of April 1916, damage was done to the undermentioned Property, namely:—* my office furniture & effects at 16 Lower Sackville St. Dublin and such damage was occasioned to the best of my belief by The burning of the said premises during the recent rebellion

And I further declare that the Property and Articles specified on the other side were so destroyed or damaged; that the Cost Price of same was as shown in each case; that at the time of the destruction or damage they were respectively of the Values specified under the head "Value of Property at time of Destruction or Damage"; and that, in consequence of such destruction or damage, claim is hereby made for the sums specified under the head "Amount Claimed"; that the Claim is made by me as Owner; and that no person is interested in the said property except † my wife as to the old small type writer.

and that it is not insured by me or any other person, § except as follows, namely:—

The Scottish Union & National Insurance Company, Policy No. 202578, Amount £ 150=

..... " " " " £

..... " " " " £

And I make this solemn Declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true, and by virtue of the provisions of the Statutory Declarations Act, 1835.

Made and subscribed the 13th day of July 1916, at 27

Westmoreland Street in the said City, County, Dublin

before me, a Justice of the Peace for the said
