Claim No 3058. Saxone Shoe Co.

Dear Sir,

We have to acknowledge receipt of your letter of yesterday's date returning us the fire policy herein.

We have this morning received a Draft from the Chief Secretary's Office for £2454. 10/- stated to be in full discharge of the claim for compensation for contents of No 51 Lower Sackville Street. Would you kindly give our representative particulars of how this sum is made up or if you are not in a position to do so, perhaps you would direct him as to where he can obtain same.

Truly yours,

J. J. Healy

Dear Sir,

We have to acknowledge receipt this morning of your communication of the 22nd instant, which is having our attention.

Could you tell us to which of the Committee's assessors this claim has been sent? Owing to there being nobody in this country in a position to furnish the particulars required, we would like if possible to discuss the matter with the assessor before communicating with our clients in Scotland, so that we could tell them exactly what is required.

Dear Sir,

We send herewith Compensation Claim in duplicate on behalf of the Saxone Shoe Co. Ltd. and we have annexed thereto Messrs Donnelly & Moore's estimate of the cost of rebuilding the premises dated the 8th instant. We enclose fire policy on the premises with the London & Lancashire Company No 8717729, and we have attached thereto the Company's receipt for the last premium dated the 6th April 1916.

As regards the policy on the contents of the premises. This policy is at present in use, but can be produced for inspection at any time arranged. As will be seen from the note at the foot of the claim, the policy covers the contents of claimants' seventy branches.

As the claimants reside in Scotland, we would be obliged if the assessor would let us know as soon as possible when it would be convenient for him to obtain such further information as he may require and we will then arrange for the representative of the Company to cross over and meet him. Kindly acknowledge receipt of the enclosed.
